FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney General Opens Flagstaff Satellite Office

(Phoenix, Ariz. – Oct. 14, 2005) Attorney General Terry Goddard invites Flagstaff area residents to visit the newest satellite office located at the Flagstaff Family Resource Center, 1806 E. Route 66.

The office is open to anyone who would like information on fraud, ID theft, Internet safety and other consumer issues. Volunteers staffing the office are trained to assist residents in filing a fraud or civil rights complaint and in providing referral information.

The office will be open Monday evenings from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday mornings from 10 a.m. to noon. It is one of 15 Attorney General satellite offices around Arizona. These offices are part of the Attorney General's Community Services Unit, which provides educational programs focusing on consumer fraud and protection of civil and victims' rights.

Volunteers are available to make educational presentations for community groups and to distribute educational materials at community events. If you are interested in having a presentation made to a community group, or if you are interested in volunteering with the Attorney General's Office, please contact the office at 1-866-358-6661.

For more information about the Community Services Program, please visit the Attorney General's Web site at www.azag.gov.
